GLOBALISING CITIZENS: NEW DYNAMICS OF INCLUSION AND EXCLUSION

Edited by: John Gaventa and Rajesh Tandon

Published by Zed Books

Globalising Citizens: New Dynamics of Inclusion and Exclusion presents expert analysis from cities and villages in India, South Africa, Nigeria, the Philippines, Kenya, the Gambia and Brazil to explore how forms of global authority shape and build new meanings and practices of citizenship, across local, national and global arenas,

Global in scope and packed with empirical and original case studies, largely from Southern contexts, the book is essential reading of development studies students and researchers, scholars, activists and practitioners concerned with issues of citizenship.

Globalising Citizens is the latest in the Claiming Citizenship series. Each high-quality volume features thoroughly peer-reviewed research from senior experts in their field, which examines the multifaceted issues of citizenship, rights, participation and accountability.
